

Guidelines to Contributors

The Ethiopian Journal of Language, Culture and Communication (EJLCC) publishes original research findings and scholarly articles devoted to the interdisciplinary study of issues in the areas of linguistics, language teaching, literature, folklore and communication in Ethiopia. EJLCC also welcomes book reviews, commentaries and case studies on areas of language, literary, cultural and communication studies.

Authors who wish to send their manuscripts for possible publication in EJLCC must consider the following requirements:

GENERAL INFORMATION: Manuscripts will be considered for publication on the understanding that they have not been previously published and are not simultaneously submitted elsewhere. All manuscripts submitted to EJLCC are subject to double-blind review by qualified reviewers with specialization in the subject. Decisions are made as rapidly as possible, and the Journal strives to return reviewers' comments to authors as fast as possible. Whereas the Editorial Board reserves the right to make editorial corrections to and accept or reject papers submitted, authors are entirely responsible for all statements in their work. Thus any statement in an article published in EJLCC should not in any way be taken as the opinion of the Editors or of the Publisher.

MANUSCRIPT STYLE AND FORMAT: Manuscripts should be in Times New Roman font for English and Power Gees Unicode for Amharic. They should be typed in 1.5 line spacing with a page margin of 8.5-11 inch. Their length should not exceed 30 pages including bibliography and an abstract of maximum 150 words. They should bear: the full title of the article, and the name(s), institutional affiliations and full address (including e-mail) of the author (s).

CITATION AND REFERENCES: EJLCC follows APA style. Please kindly refer A guide to APA referencing – 6th edition.

LANGUAGE AND SPELLING: English and Amharic are the languages of the Journal. Authors must avoid sexist and racist language. As regards manuscripts written in English, either UK or American English spelling can be used but consistency in one should be maintained throughout. Papers with very serious spelling and language-related errors could be subject to rejection despite their quality.
