

Enabling University Peace Education
Call for Applications
Training for Academic Staffs

Bahir Dar University, in collaboration with the British Council, is currently implementing the "Enabling University Peace Education" (EUPE) project. This initiative, co-funded by the European Union, operates in Ethiopia and Sudan. As part of this project, selected academic staff members from Bahir Dar University will be provided with training in "Peace Education." The university, in partnership with the British Council and the European Union, aims to engage a total of 100 academic staff members from various disciplines/fields. The training program will span five consecutive half days.

We hereby announce the opening of the call for applications. Interested applicants must submit their documents (community service and training certificates) as soft copies to the following email address: eupebahirdaruniversity2022@gmail.com.

The deadline for submission is March 29th, 2024.

The selection of academic staff members will be based on the following criteria:

- ♣ Membership as an academic staff member
- ♣ Involvement in community engagement
- ♣ Experience in facilitating and delivering trainings

Note:

- ⬇ Priority will be given for female applicants
- ⬇ Applicants from the social science discipline will have a 50% reserved quota.
